AUTUMN TERM 2023 No.14

Dear Parents and Carers

This week saw the Y3 and Y4 Christmas concerts conclude our Christmas performances. It was packed with poems, songs and music from our violinists. There were beautiful songs by candlelight and the year 4 rewrite of the 12 Days of Christmas was great fun. Despite the issue with the light fitting at the evening performance, both performances were a great success - well done to the children and staff involved.

As some of you will know, the hall is currently out of action because of the broken light fitting. We do have electricians coming in soon to resolve this, but as I understand it, the lights are the 48-year-old originals from when the school was built, so I need everyone to keep their fingers crossed so that, hopefully, we only need to replace one fitting and the others are OK!

All the kitchen and school staff did an amazing job to ensure that the Christmas lunch still went ahead with the usual songs, crackers and fun despite not having access to the hall.

As we reach the end of term, we are sad to be saying goodbye to Caroline Glover, our School Business Manager, who is retiring after 18 years with us. She keeps the school running, and I know that it was her diligence that got the school back up and running after the recent flood.

Sue Stevens, who is our clerk to the Governors, is also leaving us. As well as her clerking responsibilities, she puts together the newsletter, updates the website and helps with PE fixtures, plus a myriad of other tasks.

Both will be sorely missed, and we wish them all the best in their next ventures.

From January, Mrs Fawkes will take on the role of School Business Manager and we welcome Mrs Flanagan-Jones who will be joining the admin team.

And finally, I would like to thank you all for making my first term at The Lea so perfect. It has been a pleasure to meet so many of you on the playground. A big thank you also has to go to all the staff who have helped me navigate my way through the term.

I hope that you all have a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Keep safe, enjoy the holidays and see you all in 2024!

PTA

Hello from your PTA,

We would like to start by saying a big thank you, we've raised a whopping £784.16 collectively for our wreath making evening, festive film night, and rainbow raffle.

Our film night was a great evening, it was so lovely to see all the children's faces when Santa came to visit! We would like to say a special thank you to Santa himself for making it extra special for the children.

We have gifted £500 to the school council after they delivered a great proposal this week. We will keep you updated on the resources they decide to purchase.

Thank you again for all your help and support this term. We hope you all have a fantastic Christmas & New year!

SNOW WHITE

In the Abbey Theatre, St Albans, Jan 13th and 14th

And in the EMC, Harpenden, Jan 25th -28th 2024

It's off to work we go! The Hurst Children's Theatre Group are back in their traditional January slot with their traditional Panto –this time, Snow White! As usual, they will have their own spin on the old yarn, not least Princess Ana from Frozen who keeps turning up in the wrong story!

Snow White will have to face the evil Queen with the help of her friends and young Elves –collectively known as the National Elf Service. The Well Fairy will watch over proceedings which include flashes of magic, a talking mirror, a whole chorus of Jesters, the panto Dame and the evil Bad Bert with his trusty sparrow, Jack!

The boisterous cast of 100 children will knock your socks off with their unrivalled singing - making the World a better place for 100 minutes or so! Old songs, modern songs, some rock n roll and of course an audience singalong, will have you toe-tapping your way all the way home with a smile on your face.

This Pantomime is suitable for all ages and a wonderful outing for all the family. There are currently seats available for all performances, but they often sell out, so book now! For tickets, see our website:
www.hurstchildrenstheatregrp.com

We hope to see you there!
